Leave and Time-Off Policy

Policy ID: TH-HR-002 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 1 January 2026

Fictional company policy document created for the AI Handbook RAG project.

1. Annual Leave Entitlement

Full-time employees are entitled to 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Annual leave is intended for vacation, personal time, and other planned absences.

2. Requesting Annual Leave

- Employees should submit annual leave requests at least 3 working days before the requested start date.
- Requests for more than 5 consecutive working days require manager approval before the leave is taken.
- Leave requests are subject to operational requirements and are not automatically approved when submitted.

3. Sick Leave

Employees may take up to 12 days of sick leave per calendar year. When possible, employees should notify their manager before the start of the workday. A medical document may be requested for extended or repeated absence.

4. Emergency Leave

Up to 3 days of emergency leave may be approved for unexpected personal or family circumstances. Employees should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

5. Carry Forward

Up to 5 unused annual leave days may be carried into the following calendar year. Carried-forward days must be used by 31 March unless HR grants an exception.

6. Leave During Notice Period

Annual leave during a notice period requires manager and HR approval and may be restricted where business continuity would be affected.

7. Cancellation

Approved leave may be cancelled or rescheduled when significant business requirements arise. Managers should provide reasonable notice where possible.

8. Questions

For questions about leave balances or exceptions, employees should contact HR.
