Expense Reimbursement Policy

Policy ID: TH-FIN-006 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 1 January 2026

Fictional company policy document created for the AI Handbook RAG project.

1. Eligible Expenses

Employees may claim reasonable and necessary expenses incurred for authorized business purposes.

2. Documentation

Each claim should include the date, business purpose, amount, and supporting receipt or invoice when available.

3. Submission Deadline

Expense claims should normally be submitted within 10 calendar days of the expense.

4. Approval

The employee's manager must approve business expenses. Finance may request additional documentation before reimbursement.

5. Communication Expenses

Approved business communication expenses, such as required work-related calls or connectivity costs, may be reimbursed when supported by documentation.

6. Client and Business Meals

Business meals may be reimbursed when the business purpose and attendees are recorded. The standard limit is INR 1,500 per person unless an exception is approved.

7. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

Personal purchases, entertainment unrelated to business, fines, penalties, and expenses that violate company policy are not reimbursable.

8. Reimbursement Timing

Approved claims are normally processed within 7 working days after Finance receives complete documentation.

9. Exceptions

Exceptions require written approval from the Finance Manager before the expense is incurred whenever practical.
