Business Travel Policy

Policy ID: TH-FIN-005 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 1 January 2026

Fictional company policy document created for the AI Handbook RAG project.

1. Purpose

This policy defines how employees should request, book, and claim expenses for approved business travel.

2. Travel Approval

Business travel requires manager approval before booking. International travel also requires approval from the relevant department head.

3. Transportation

Economy-class air travel and standard rail travel should be used for ordinary business trips. Premium travel requires documented business justification and approval.

4. Accommodation

Employees may book standard business accommodation within the company's approved nightly limit of INR 6,000 per night, excluding applicable taxes. Exceptions require prior approval.

5. Meals

Reasonable meal expenses incurred during approved business travel may be reimbursed up to INR 1,500 per day.

6. Local Transportation

Reasonable taxi, public transport, and approved rental-car expenses may be reimbursed when supported by receipts or approved digital records.

7. Expense Submission

Travel expenses should be submitted within 10 calendar days after returning from the trip. Claims must include receipts where available.

8. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

Personal entertainment, minibar purchases, fines, traffic penalties, and expenses for family members are not reimbursable.

9. Changes and Cancellations

Employees should choose reasonable refundable or changeable options when practical. Avoidable cancellation costs may not be reimbursed.
